Financial Commitment:

I understand that attendance on this trip means I am responsible for the $450 fee per person to attend. This covers my transportation, three meals per day, all activities, and in house snacks. It does not cover "extras" such as souvenirs or snacks desired outside of normal meal times. I also understand that while it is my responsibility, Wilson Memorial Church will make every effort to provide me the tools to raise the funds needed. While most of the tools are optional, I am required to participate in the Pasta Dinner Fundraiser, scheduled for April 28 at 4pm, as both a server and to fill at least one table with guests.

My $100 deposit per person to hold my spot on the 2024 mission trip to Urban Promise in Camden is included with this application.

Personal Commitment:

I am prepared to fully participate in this year's trip to Urban Promise in Camden and participate in all the preparation required to have the most productive experience possible. I will submit to the needs and requests of our trip leaders as well as Urban Promise staff. I will remain with our group or a group leader at all times and will practice the wisdom and humility needed in an urban environment where I am a learner not an expert.
