

Holiday Hangouts Behavior Policy

Holiday Hangouts thrive on active and enthusiastic student participation! We encourage students to appropriately engage in all activities, as this helps to further develop passionate interests, leadership skills, and self- efficacy. While attending Holiday Hangouts, all students are held accountable for the following agreements:

- Mutual Respect
- Appreciations; No Put Downs
- Right to Participate
- Attentive Listening

If a student exhibits inappropriate behavior, we encourage the instructor to try and positively redirect the student to comply with the agreements. If inappropriate behavior persists, we encourage our instructors to speak directly with the parent and collaborate on a plan that supports positive student participation during a Holiday Hangout.

If serious inappropriate behavior (i.e. a student is at risk for causing serious injury to himself, herself, or others) persists, the Director of Holiday Hangouts will contact parents to discuss a possible suspension from Holiday Hangout activities. Suspension from Holiday Hangout activities is an extreme measure and used only when all other measures to redirect a student's behavior have been exhausted.

Every attempt will be made to ensure every student's positive experience during Holiday Hangouts.

Please initial your acceptance of the Holiday Hangout Behavior Policy:

_____ I have read the above Holiday Hangout Behavior Policy. I will encourage my child to participate in all activities, follow the agreements, and have fun. I understand that if my child engages in serious behavior (i.e. at risk of causing serious injury to himself, herself, or others), that he/ she may be excused from participating in Holiday Hangout activities without a refund. I understand that all Holiday Hangout staff will exhaust every measure to support my child before suspension from activities is considered.
